Gift Aid
Guidance Notes

What is Gift Aid?

- | The inland revenue has always allowed tax free donations to charities.
- | The Gift Aid Initiative was launched by the government to allow charities to claim the 'income tax' for the donation. In effect making the donation tax free.

- | Example
 - | Jakes parents pay £1.50 subs each week for Jake to attend Cub Scouts on a Wednesday night.
 - | Jakes parents will have earn't £1.92 to pay for Jakes subs, £1.50 + 42p (income tax).
 - | This initiative allows the 86th Scout Group charity to claim the 42p from the government each time Jakes parents pay his subs.

What do I have to do?

- Complete a declaration form like this one.
- See any Leader, they will be happy to give you a form.
- What am I declaring?
 - Your are declaring that you pay an amount of income tax that is greater than the amount the charity will claim.
 - In a normal year there will be approx 40 meetings which is £60. The 86th Scout Group will claim £16.80.
 - You must pay at least £16.80 income tax per year.
